

The images in this presentation were pulled from the online Pensacola News Journal Gallery entitled "The World According to Bowden: editorial cartoons by J Earle Bowden" on September 22, 2014.

<http://www.pnj.com/picture-gallery/life/2014/09/18/the-world-according-to-bowden-editorial-cartoons-by-j-earle-bowden/15852961/>

J. Earle Bowden reflects on one of his editorial cartoons Thursday that is hanging at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88 with several other peices from his career as a cartoonist and editor at the Pensacola News Journal. The show "The World According to Bowden" is a small selection of his vast body of work but the majority of his cartoons have been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

J. Earle Bowden, left, has a laugh while talking with Dean DeBolt Thursday during a reception for a showing of Bowden's editorial cartoons at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88. The small selection of work from the former editor and cartoonist for the Pensacola News Journal is hanging at Gallery 88 on the University of West Florida Campus through October 31 and much of his vast body of work has been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben

Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

J. Earle Bowden reflects on one of his editorial cartoons Thursday during a reception for a showing of his work "The World According to Bowden" that is hanging at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88 on the University of West Florida campus. The former editor and cartoonist for the Pensacola News Journal has a vast body of work and the majority of his cartoons have been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

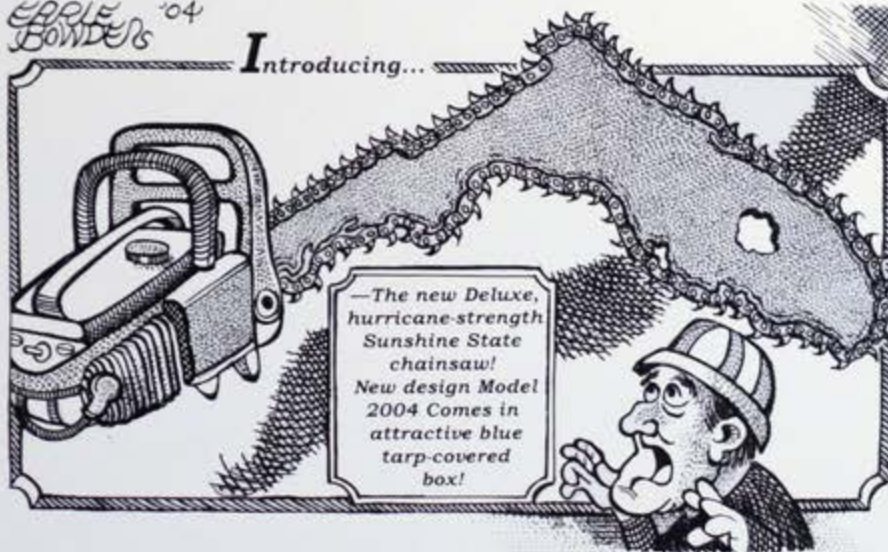

J. Earle Bowden, left, talks with Dean DeBolt on Thursday during a reception for a showing of Bowden's editorial cartoons at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88. The small selection of work from the former editor and cartoonist for the Pensacola News Journal is hanging at Gallery 88 on the University of West Florida Campus through October 31 and much of his vast body of work has been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

J. Earle Bowden reflects on his career as editor and cartoonist for the Pensacola News Journal during a reception for a showing of his work Thursday at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88. The show "The World According to Bowden" is a small selection of his vast body of work but the majority of his cartoons have been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

EARLE BOWDEN '04

Introducing...

18A

18B

"The World According to Bowden" is a small selection editorial cartoons from a vast body of work by J. Earle Bowden, former Pensacola News Journal editor and cartoonist, is hanging at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88 through October 31. These four cartoon reflect the busy Florida storm season of 2004. The majority of his cartoons have been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

18C

J. Earle Bowden reflects some of his editorial cartoons Thursday hanging at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88 from a long career as a cartoonist and editor at the Pensacola News Journal. The show "The World According to Bowden" is a small selection of his vast body of work but the majority of his cartoons have been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

1A

1B

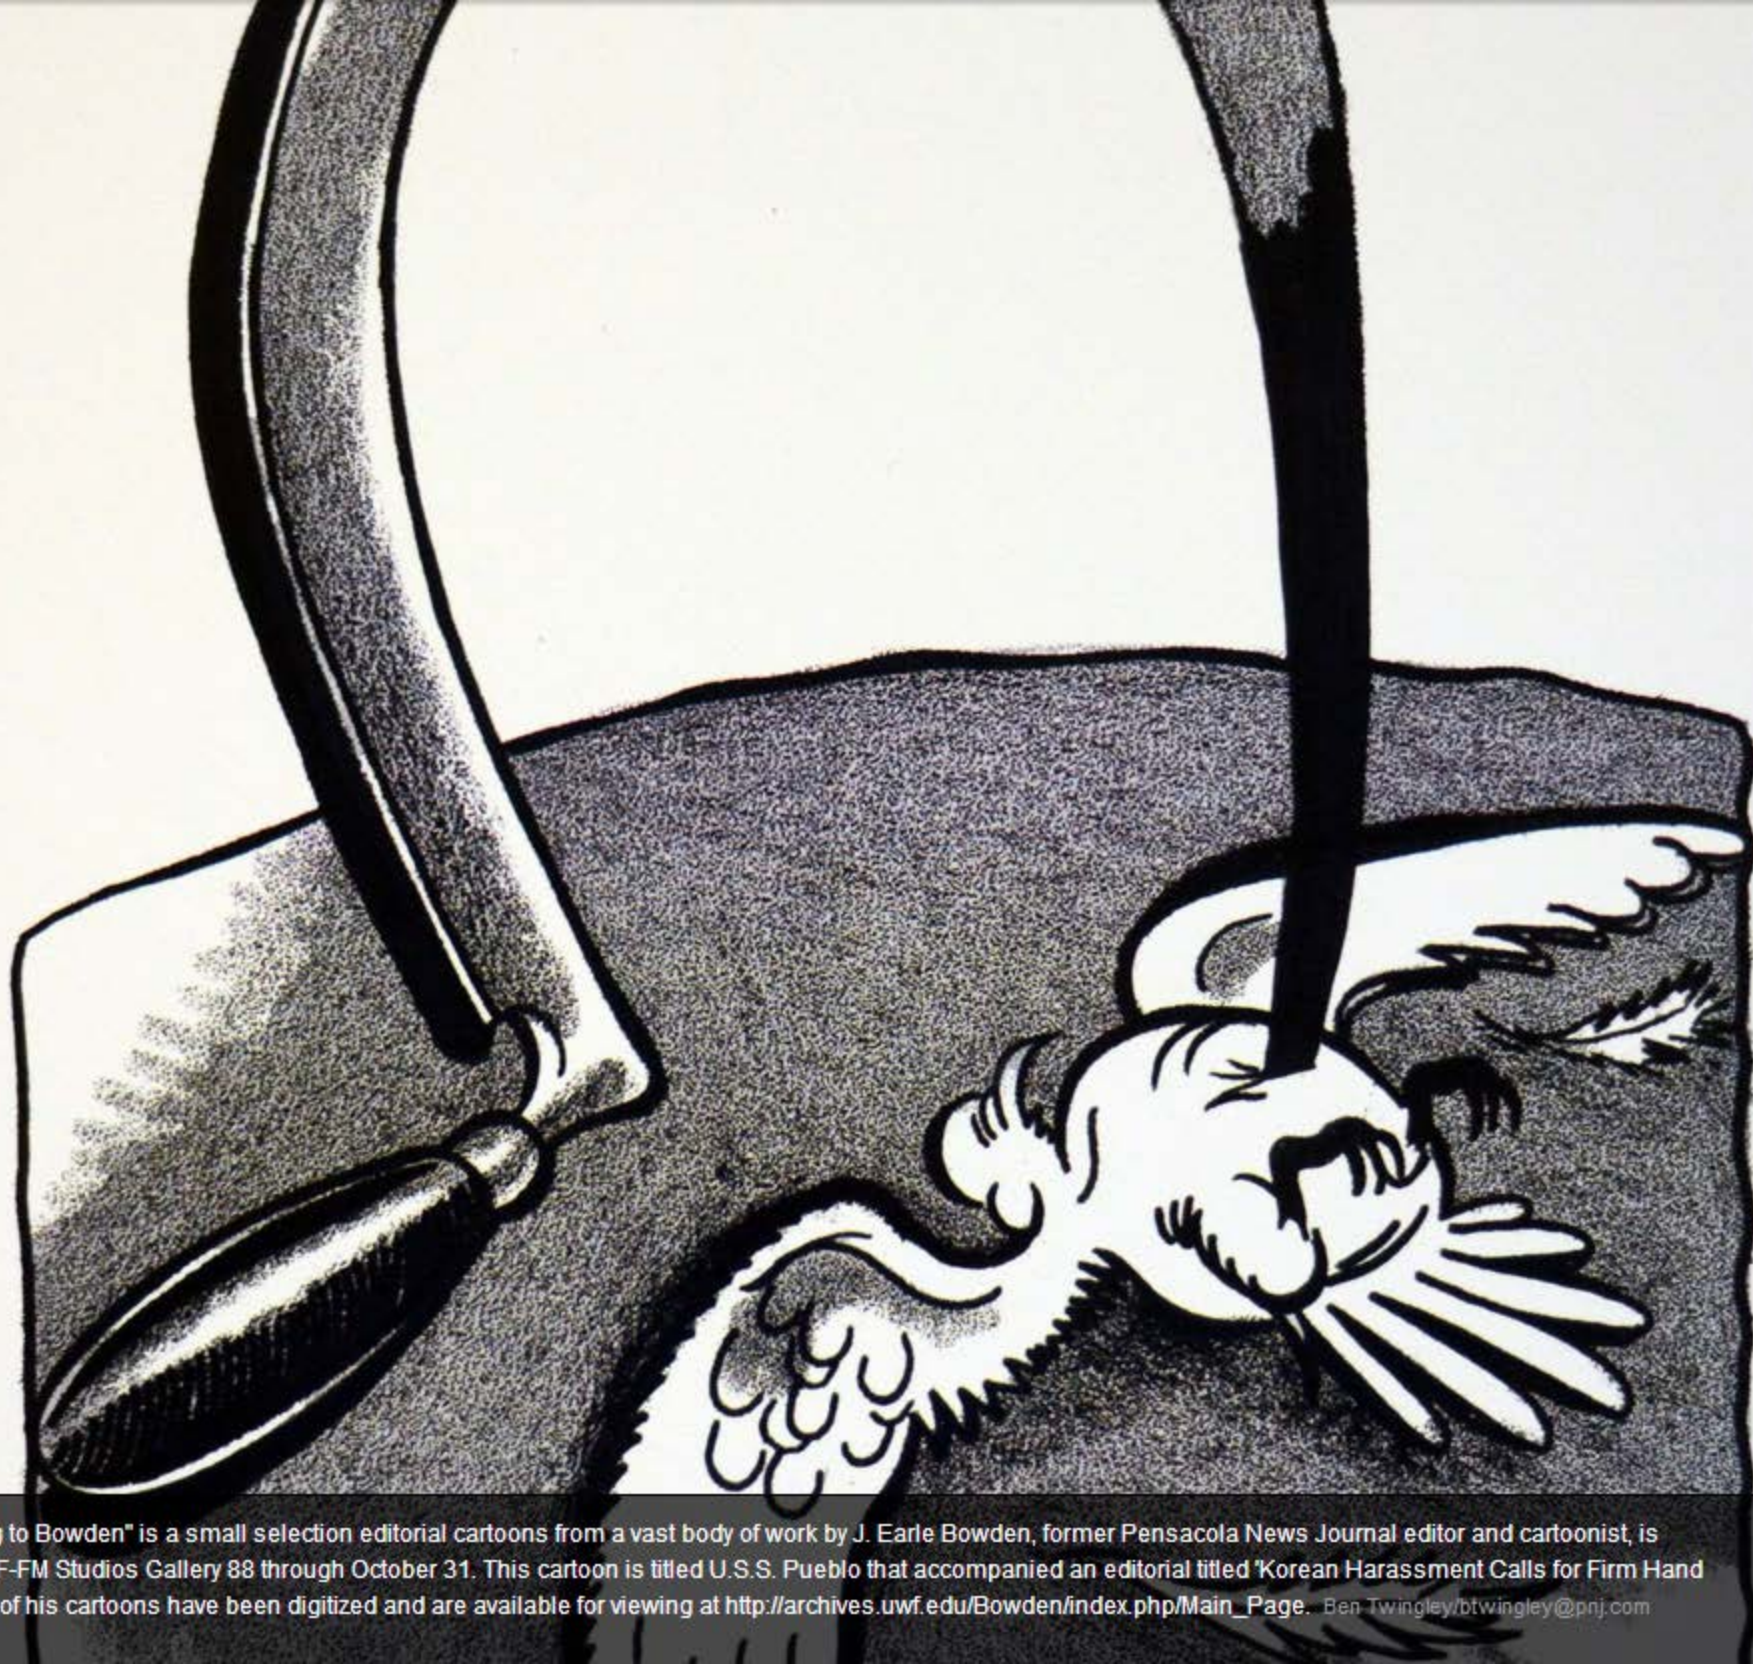

2A

2B

"The World According to Bowden" is a small selection editorial cartoons from a vast body of work by J. Earle Bowden, former Pensacola News Journal editor and cartoonist, is hanging at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88 through October 31. These cartoons are titled, clockwise from top left, "Hammer and Sickle", "Bay of Pigs", "Sewing Up the Riff" and "There's that Confounded Mule!". Bowden features Fidel Castro, illustrates the Bay of Pigs, The majority of his cartoons have been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

10

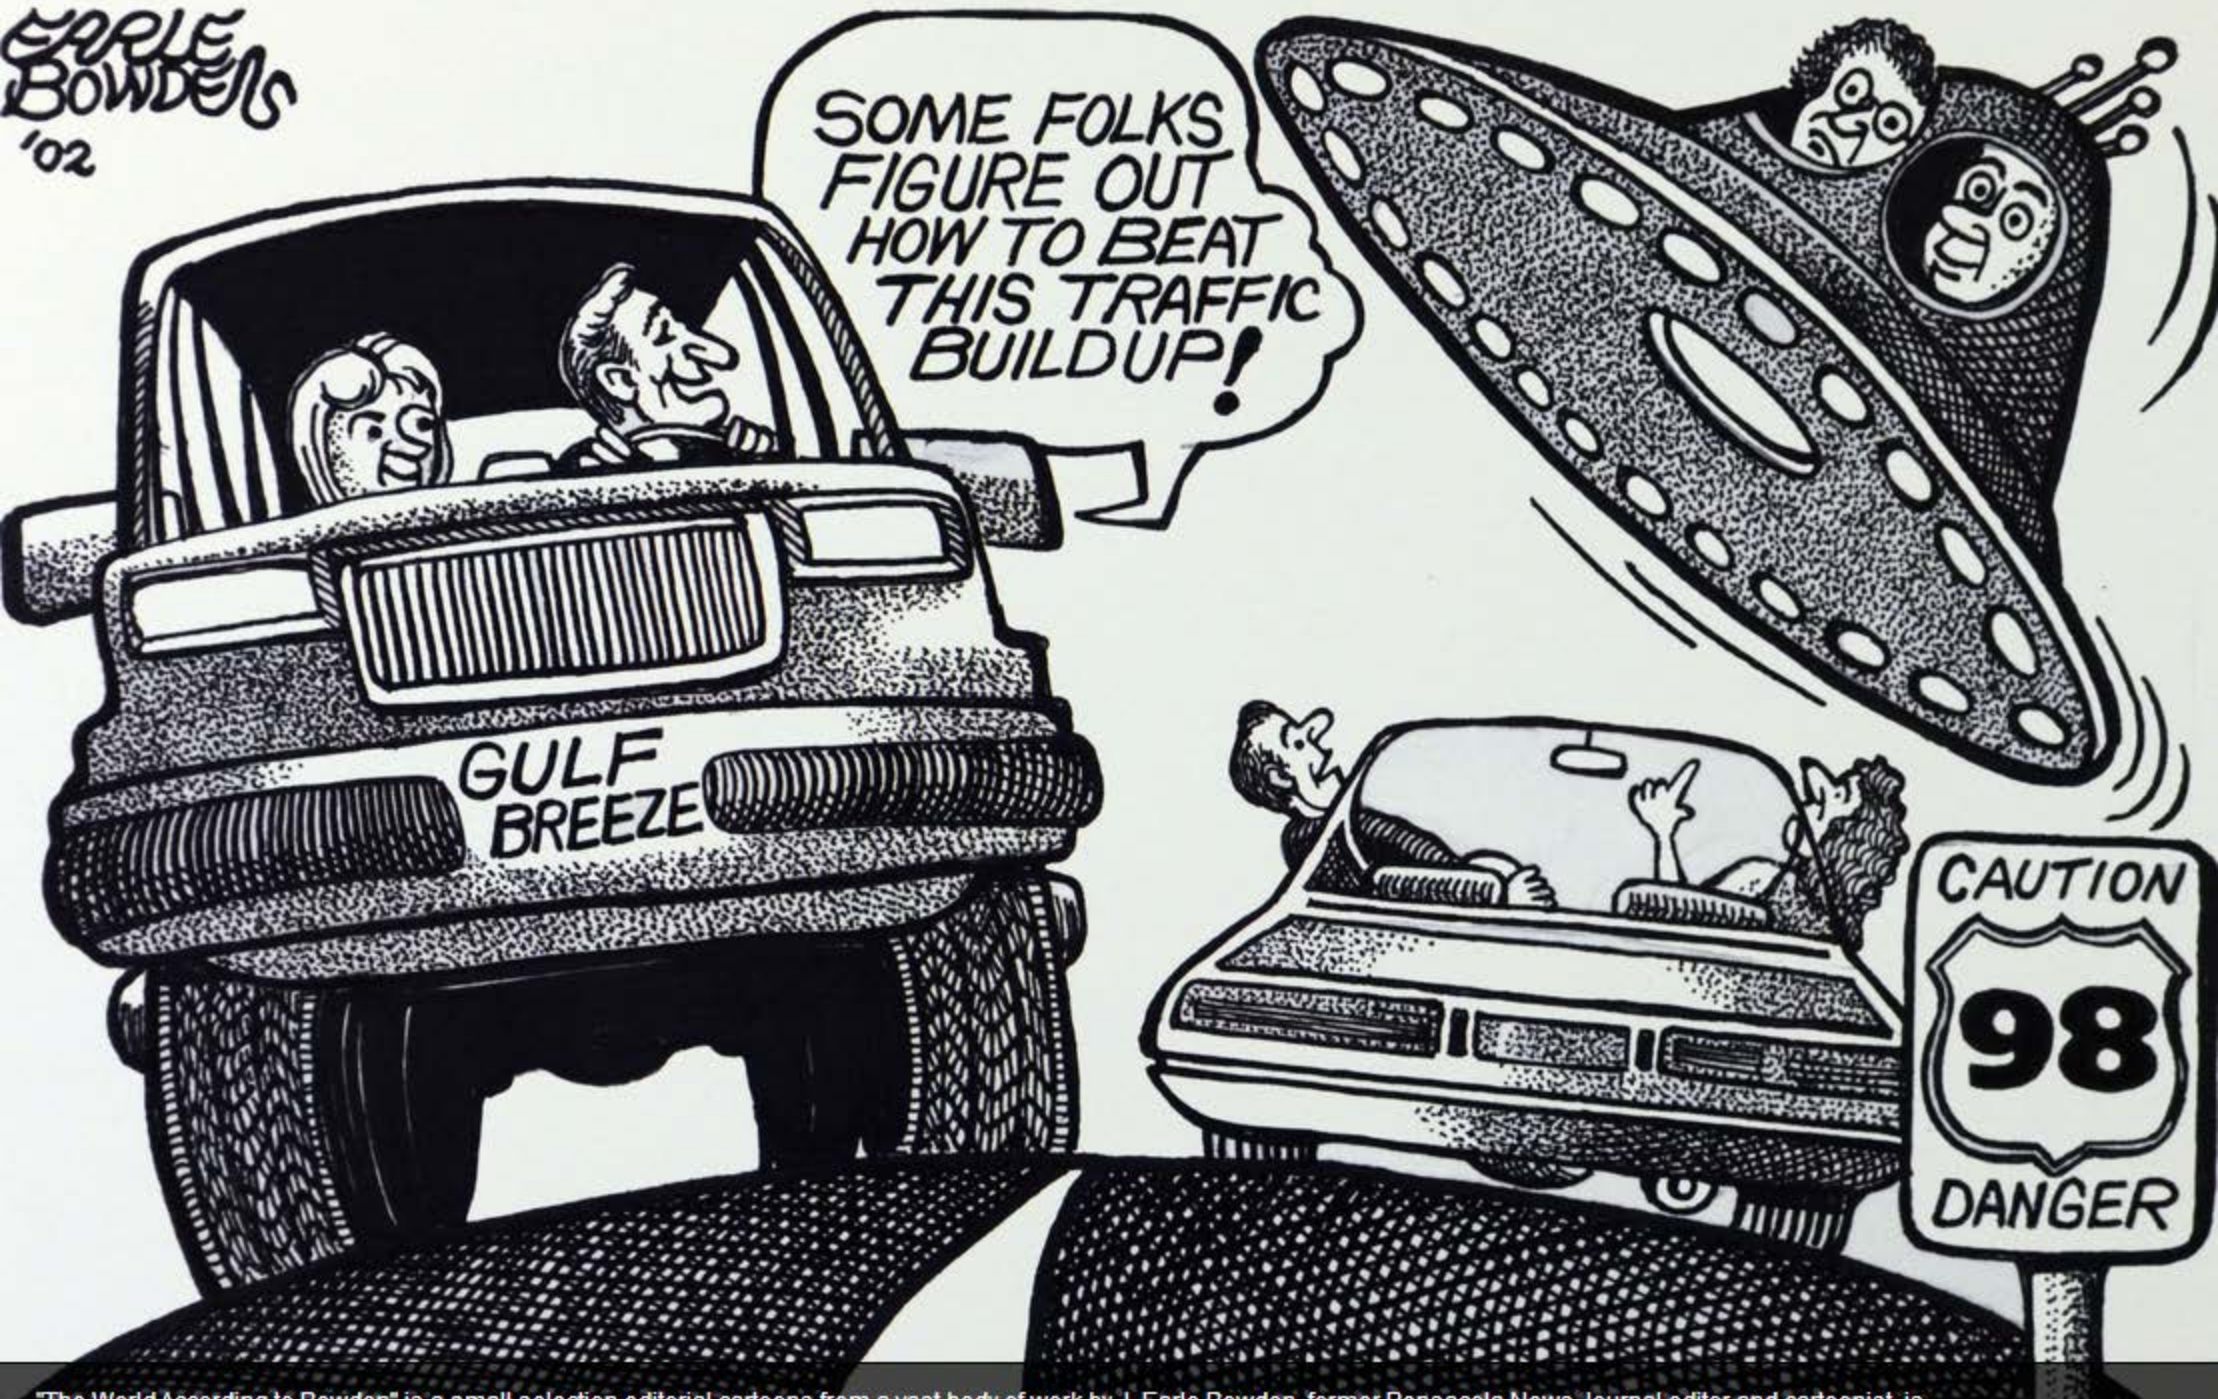

"The World According to Bowden" is a small selection editorial cartoons from a vast body of work by J. Earle Bowden, former Pensacola News Journal editor and cartoonist, is hanging at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88 through October 31. This cartoon is titled U.S.S. Pueblo that accompanied an editorial titled 'Korean Harassment Calls for Firm Hand in Asia.' The majority of his cartoons have been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

"The World According to Bowden" is a small selection editorial cartoons from a vast body of work by J. Earle Bowden, former Pensacola News Journal editor and cartoonist, is hanging at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88 through October 31. This cartoon is titled "Be Patient...We May Get Our Chance." The majority of his cartoons have been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

EARLE
BOWDEN
'02

"The World According to Bowden" is a small selection editorial cartoons from a vast body of work by J. Earle Bowden, former Pensacola News Journal editor and cartoonist, is hanging at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88 through October 31. This cartoon is titled "Some Folks Figure Out How To Beat This Traffic Buildup!" The majority of his cartoons have been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com

"The World According to Bowden" is a small selection editorial cartoons from a vast body of work by J. Earle Bowden, former Pensacola News Journal editor and cartoonist, is hanging at the WUWF-FM Studios Gallery 88 through October 31. The majority of his cartoons have been digitized and are available for viewing at http://archives.uwf.edu/Bowden/index.php/Main_Page. Ben Twingley/btwingley@pnj.com